Juimet Looms Up as Golfing Test Begins

hares Honors with James Thom= La Montagne Shoots Goal on by Leading Field with 151 in First Qualifying Round for the Open Title.

not the pre-eminence of the professional is again in jeopardy was elefaction of hundreds of golfers in the first of r, with a total of 151 strokes, shared first ore than nine hours the weather conditions were caught in a violent storm that swept down from the mountain with tropical suddenness. In a trice greens were while the eight players still out were soon drenched and dis-est as the storm broke, but Max R. Marston, the New Jersey Patterson, were on the fifteenth green when the nearly every tee Ouimet had FULL SUMMARY OF at the end of the day had Reid the end of the day had Reid the she to put with his accustomed these. Several times the Seaview the to lay his approach puts that missed the short ones.

That he had the happy faculty Typing long ones every once in a opping long ones every once in a both times furnished the gallery and for thought.

be morning he was in the rough hat clear across the course to frame to the left and a third teper with trouble. He then

th so adopt this model because of is steep roof, which sheds water will and the ease with which it can

THIS TENT, $3.60

Made in our own shop of strong or duck, size 7x7 feet, having table foor room to sleep two comfortably. Furnishd with rope petably. Furnishd with improvised peta for use with improvised peta sillustrated, or with single merior pole, 45c extra.

Y. SPORTING GOODS CO. 5 & 17 Warren Street, near Broadway

MEADOW BROOK WINS OVERTIME

in Extra Period Which Settles the Game.

Breaking even after eight periods partial darkness and a drenching thunderstorm, Meadow Brook conceded

YALE IN A TIME ROW

Covers Four Miles, Paced by Seconds and Freshmen.

Gales Ferry, Conn., June 15.—Yale's varsity eight showed good form late to-day in a time row over the regatta course, doing the four miles in 21 minutes 53 1.5 seconds. The row was down stream, with little or no tide, and the untry Club, returned Oddly enough, both applemented their 73s with 80 in the after-

Baltusrol, failed to qualify he would have had no one to blame but himself, after a 76 in the morning, Hobens are went along fairly well until the tenth was reached. There he began by slicating his ball out of bounds, but he hit the next one so well that the rabber core came to rest within a few feet of the water hazard in front of the green. Instead of pitching Holens tried to run up the shot, it the hope of getting closer to the pin, with the result that his ball hit the far bank of the hazard and fell into the water. The hole then cost him 7, but he managed to finish the day with a total of 157—the same as that credited to Kirkly.

Alec Smith showed a flash of old-time form in the afternoon, when he supplemented a 75 with a fine 74, make ing the last nine holes in 34. "The playing my mashle and putting as well as ever, but the driving isn't as good as it might be," remarked the Wykagyl "pro" at the finish. "The trouble is I haven't played enough this spring to get really in form."

INVILLE STIMMARDY OF

None More Interesting to Watch Than Chick Evans,

Whose Form Is Well-

nigh Perfect.

By GRANTLAND RICE.

By GRANTLAND RICE.

Of all golfers who wield the wood and iron in this country there is no one more interesting so watch than Chick Evans, the Chicago wizard. We know of no stroke in golf that presents a finer picture than the right shoulder dip which Chick uses on his long irons, a dip which combines rhythm and power and which is applied so nicely that the resulting timing is perfect.

In the same way there is no other golfer who carries greater snap of the whereas there are few in the country who can come up with him, and only one or two who can move on beyond.

THE SPORT LIGHT Grantland Rice

They saw him charge a German trench Amid the shrapnel smear: They watched him face the Forty-Twos Without a touch of fear; And when the chlorine gases rolled Across the poisoned chute, They saw him sniff-and take a plunge-And come back with the loot.

They marvelled at this magic nerve And met him with a cheer; But when they brought the medals out He spurned them with a sneer; "Compared with other years," he said, "This stuff is merely play-This is the softest job I've known-My name is Hank O'Day."

Recently at the Polo Grounds a base runner was sprinting for first base.

Recently at the Polo Grounds a base runner was sprinting for first base.

Recently at the Polo Grounds a base runner was sprinting for first base.

Recently at the Polo Grounds a base runner was sprinting for first base.

The infield peg reached Mr. Pipp, of the Yanks, at least a step and a half ahead of the runner. Yet the umpire called the visitor safe. Immediately the stands of the runner, and the polonymetric for two before he drounded for two before he drounded for two before he drounded. accounted for two before he dropped Forty Thieves. But a small section of fans who happened to be directly back out of the game.

The handicap odds were evened up by half-time, and it was a desperate by half-time, and it was a despera by half-time, and it was a desperate struggle, on level terms, from that time to the end.

Or first offered no criticism. For they happened to see, with O'Loughlin, that Pirp's foot was at least ten inches off the bag. There was no other way to

This testimony is offered as a tip to the intense and frenzied fanatic who is addicted to the habit of panning umpires. The fact that the ball beats the H. C. Phipps, which made the score a base runner doesn't always mean the runner is out. And only the umpire and There was no further scoring to the a very small percentage of fans are focussed properly on the play.

Golf and Brains.

If it requires an abundance of brains to play fine golf, then 799,892 of the

A fine golfer may have an unlimited brain supply-and a fine golfer may also carry less than a thimbleful of the esteemed commodity. The possession of brains has very little to do with it, one way or another. Golf is mainly a matter of knack, practice, experience and muscular control.

Piling It Up.

Dear Sir: To settle an argument, who, in your opinion, is the best pitcher in the college ranks this season-Neyland, Way, Whitney, Sisler, Smith-or medal player is merely a matter of opinion, as in the last two years both have travelled about evenly down the way. Evans is probably a trifle more brilliant bear's telegram. All expenses of the visiting crews will be paid.

The Syracuse crews were unable to Evans led Ouimet at Garden City two years ago, and Ouimet led Evans at Ekwanok last fall. In the last open Ouimet led Evans for all four rounds by five strokes, whereas it will be interesting to follow the result of their ping six strokes. It will be interesting to follow the result of their ping six strokes. It will be interesting to follow the result of their ping six strokes. It will be interesting to follow the result of their ping six strokes. It will be interesting to follow the result of their ping six strokes. It will be interesting to follow the result of their ping six strokes. It will be interesting to follow the result of their ping six strokes. It will be interesting to follow the result of their ping six strokes. It will be interesting to follow the result of their ping six strokes. It will be interesting to follow the result of their ping six strokes. It will be interesting to follow the result of their ping six strokes. It will be interesting to follow the result of their ping six strokes. It will be interesting to follow the result of their ping six strokes. It will be interesting to follow the result of the stroke of the six strokes. It will be interesting to follow the result of their play at Bal-

"If the Red Sox only get together"-starts a contemporary. Which is the answer. If the Red Sox get together, both Tigers and White Sox will have are able to carry to make an even fight. But if the Red Sox should

In the sultry interim what has become of the Renowned Zim? In the list that records the first twenty batsmen in the N. L. his name is not written in the records. Or is he merely taking his time for a sudden dash to the top? FIRST RACE

He who putts and looks away-Will have another putt to play;

The Giants at last can appreciate how the Reds have been living for

Entries for To-Day of Some Golfing Stars better in this respect than even the leading pros. In fact, Alec Smith says he will take Jerry Travers against the field at going down in fewer strokes from within thirty yards of the pin from within thirty yards of the pin will go down in 2 oftener than loss Site 100 Galeswinths 104 Dr. Gremer 100 RACE—Handleap; for three-year for the street of the

at Jamaica Track

any man I know, says Alec, who also proved that he was far from being a dead one. But there are a goodly number who will back Ouimet to give Jerry at least an even fight in this mastery of the short game, although Travers is a slightly prettier putter to watch.

So far as a preciscular effort is considered.

to watch.

So far as spectacular effort is concerned, there is no golfer more pleasing to watch than Gil Nicholls, who has staged one of the most remarkable come-backs of sportdom. Gil is the most slashing player on this side of the water. No golfer will take greater chances, and if most of these go right no golfer will score as low. Even before his sickness and his injuries Nicholls was one of the most feared golfers in America. And to-day those with a good chance to win figure that Nicholls will likely be the man to beat.

It is not impossible that Max Mark. FIFTH RACE-Selling; for four-year-olds 110 *Lady Rankin

SIXTH RACE—For two-year-old maiden filles and geldings. Five furiongs.

Miss Puzzle 110 Corfu 110
Puzzle 110 Feminist 110
Rac B 110 Honnis Tess 110
Mary Blackwood 110 Favour 110
Pussy Willow 110
*Apprentice allowance claimed. Track fast; weather cool and windy. [By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Easton, Penn., June 15.—Daniel H. Blackburn has been elected captain of the Lafayette baseball team for next Boston, June 15.—Ad Wolgast to-day ancelled his boxing bout with Gilbert cancelled his boxing bout with Gilbert Gallant, scheduled for to-night. He said that illness prevented him from entering the ring.

State League Results. All games postponed; rain.

PENN 'VARSITY BEATEN BY THE JUNIOR EIGHT

Left Three Lengths Astern After a Gruelling Trial at Poughkeepsie.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 15.—Vivian Nickalls, coach of the University of Pennsylvania crews, may be expected to do almost anything with his 'varsity eight following a beating which it received this evening at the hands of the junior varsity over the four-mile course. The second crew finished three lengths ahead of the first beat after a gruelling trial.

A violent thunderstorm broke late in the afternoon and flattened out a second crew for the second crew first beat after a gruelling trial. heavy sea that had been running at

The big English coach of the Quakshells came down the course hammer and tongs, rowing in the lanes which they will use in the races two weeks

Passing the Columbia boathouse at the one-mile mark the juniors had nulled out to a lead of three-quarters of a length, and at the two-mile mark, when the freshmen were picked up the juniors, were a length and a half to the good. The freshmen had a three-lengths' start and the juniors caught them at the bridge. At this point the varsity was two and a quarter lengths behind and fell back another three-quarters of a length in the ther three-quarters of a length in the last mile.

The Quakers were the first to venture on the river this morning and met with all kinds of difficulties on hike over the mountains and did not put them on the river until late in the evening, when Simonds regained his place in the 'varsity shell at No. 3. The fight between him and Mansach for this seat probably will go on, as Rice is till undecided which man end will be a seat probably will go on, as Rice is till undecided which man end will be a seat probably will go on, as Rice is till undecided which man end will be a seat probably will go on, as Rice is till undecided which man end will be a seat probably will go on, as Rice is till undecided which man end will be a seat probably will go on, as Rice is till undecided which man end will be a seat probably will go on, as Rice is till undecided which man end will be a seat probably will go on, as Rice is till undecided which man end will be a seat probably will go on, as Rice is till undecided which man end will be a seat probably will go on, as Rice is till undecided which man end will be a seat probably will go on, as Rice is till undecided which man end will be a seat probably will go on, as Rice is till undecided which man end will be a seat probably will go on, as Rice is till undecided which man end will be a seat probably will go on, as Rice is till undecided which man end will be a seat probably will go on, as Rice is till undecided which man end will be a seat probably will go on, as the better a work and H. B. Duryea's a creditable performance, and contains the contain

The Cornell crews went out both morning and afternoon, although they had to hug the shore in order to avoid filling the shells with water in the morning row. In the evening they had an easy paddle upstream for several

Any opinion projected from us on this subject wouldn't settle any argument—it would only start one. And, in addition to this drawback, we don't know.

Ouimet vs. Evans.

The question as to whether Francis Ouimet or Chick Evans is the better medal player is merely a matter of opinion, as in the last two years both have the settle and the course will be three miles, according to Connitional Courtney says he is willing to take his crew out because he feels they have worked hard and faithfully and deserve the trip. The race will be rowed on July 16 and the course will be three miles, according to Connitional Courtney received a wire from Hiram Countine argument.

The Finn Once More Races to Turt Fame

Wins Southampton Handicap After Sam McMeekin, the Much Sold, Loses Any Chance in Bumping Match at the Start.

"Man was made to mourn," quoth the poet, and Sam Hildreth was willing to subscribe to this sentiment after the fourth race at the Jamaica track yesterday.

On Monday afternoon Sam Hildreth paid John E. Madden $15,000 for Sam McMeekin, as it turned out yesterday, not $18,000, as reported. On Tuesday morning August Belmont, hearing of the sale, wanted a half interest in the good three-year-old, and got it. On Tuesday afternoon Sam McMeekin and Lady Rotha collided just as the barrier went up, and any chance either had of winning was ruined then and there.

No wonder, then, Sam Hildreth agreed with the poet, for he enjoyed before aending his three crews out for their first real test.

The juniors and 'varsity went to the top of the course, while the freshmen waited at the two-mile mark. The tide was at its greatest ebb, and the two shells came down the course hamber the strength of the way at its greatest ebb, and the two shells came down the course hamber the strength of the witners and Belmont was at its greatest ebb, and the two shells came down the course hamber the strength of the witners and Belmont was a strength of the was at its greatest ebb, and the two shells came and the strength of the witners are strength of the witners are strength of the witners and strength of the witners are strength of the witner No wonder, then, Sam Hildreth agreed with the poet, for he enjoyed

POMMERN WINS THE NEW DERBY STAKES

Beats Strong Field of Seventeen Horses Originally Named for the Epsom Derby.

Newmarket, June 15.—Sol Joel's Pommern won the New Derby Stakes here to-day, a race instituted to replace the classic fixture at Epsom Downs, cancelled this year on account of the war. Let Fly was second, and Rossendale third. Seventeen horses Pommern is bred along strong lines, being by Polymelus and he by Cyllene endier part. He has been been maid Marian, by Hampton.

BULLDOG AND TIGER DO BATTLE TO-DAY

The Tribune Racing Chart

JAMAICA, TUESDAY, JUNE 15.

WEATHER CLOUDY; TRACK FAST,

rear-olds: $400 added: value to winner. $3: good. Won easily: place same. Time, 1:01. pr. Trainer, T. J. Ricaley.

and racing to really impressive victory. This son of Ogden-Livonia is small in comparison to Sharpshooter, Sam McMeekin and other good three-yearolds, but he has winged feet and a stout heart, and for the present, at least, must be ranked at the top among the horses of his age.

From an outside position Joe Byrne felt called upon to whip him away from the post, but the colt quickly earned a good position two lengths off the pace set by Garbage and rated along until called on at the head of the stretch. He then raced to the front under mild pressure and won comfort-Rossendale third. Seventeen not started.

The race was a sweepstakes of $500 added by Lord Derby, and was for three-year-olds entered for the Epsom Derby.

Among the starters were August Belmont's Danger Rock and H. B. Duryea's Chickamauga.

Chickamauga.

Chickamauga.

Chickamauga.

Chickamauga.

Rossendale third. Seventeen not starter.

Stretch. He then raced under mild pressure and won comfortably enough by a length from the fast closing Sharpshooter in the good time for the distance of 1:46 2-5.

As said before, it was a thoroughly creditable performance, and H. C. Hellenbeck has every reason to feel elated over his purchase from John E. Madden against Pommern was 11 and the strength of the April 28.

In spite of the war cloud, under which all sports in England are shaded, a big crowd was on hand to see the struggle, and Pommern's victory was popular.

earlier part, but yesterday, after being scratched from a selling race and added to the handicap, he had speed enough to stick close to The Finn until the latter came away at the head of the stretch. Even then Runes hung on gamely and finished a respectable deserve the trip. The race will be rowed on July 16 and the course will be three miles, according to Connibear's telegram. All expenses of the visiting crews will be paid.

The Syracuse crews were unable to go out this afternoon, but they got in their usual bit on the river in the morning, luckily escaping the worst of the rough water.

Blanchard, bow oar in the Syracuse freshman eight, is suffering from a badly infected hand and probably will not go out for several days, while Hartwell, at No. 2, is suffering from boils and will not row to-morrow.

Jim Rodely, the old Pennsylvania face each other this afternoon. Both

The racing was full of interest, as one of the best cards of the meeting was offered. Racegoers were quick to Nevada Handicap to win as she pleased under 122 pounds. It will take a mighty good sprinter to beat her in her present form.

Ting-a-Ling's victory at Piping Reck, when Lady Hillington and Prince of Como finished behind him, must not be accepted too seriously, judging from his performance in the first race yesterday. He got into a slight jam at the start, but was free in plenty of time, and yet never reached a contending position or ran in a way to indicate ing position or ran in a way to indicathat he is much above the ordinary,

Blue blood and royal lineage do not always count. Sam Slick, by Rock Sand, out of that wonderful race mare Artful, has been tried and found wanting a number of times, but yesterday any half breed could have beaten him.

C. J. Quinn's Roly ran a faster mile and a sixteenth than The Finn in win-ning the fifth event. Those who use time as a basis for handicapping may get over their depths on this account. get over their depths on this account.
Roly is the colt which had one of his hoofs crushed by a motor truck last year, and had to grow a new one. It was his third straight victory, and Charley Quinn, who, like most horsemen, enjoys seeing his colors up, is not disposed to accept two or three offers which have been made for the Golden Maxim three-year-old.

Ataka, which finished on the heels Ataxs, which innered on the free of Tralee a few days ago, was largely overlooked by the handicappers in the last race yesterday, but she ran right to that form and won after a spirited drive with Besslien.

Bryn Mawr Freebooters Forfeit Polo Match

Philadelphia, June 15.—The Bryn Mawr Freebooters forfeited the open-ing polo match in the tournament for the Foxhunters' Cup to the 5th United States Cavalry team to-day.

The back on the Bryn Mawr quartet sprained his shoulder in practice and the local players had no available sub-

RACING

JAMAICA TODAY

$1,000 Garden City Stakes The Illinois Handlcap The Louisiana Handloap And 3 Other Attractive Races FIRST RACE AT 2:30 P. M.

SPECIAL RACE TRAINS Pennsylvania Station, 33d St. and , also Flatbush Av., Brooklyn, at and at intervals up to 2 P. M. siso reached by Trolleya. GRAND STAND, $3. LADIES, $1.50. MUSIC BY MILITARY BAND.

% Str. Fin. 23 1n 11 64 416 21 416 31 32 12 21 42 55 65 51 55 51 65 Byrne Loftus J. McTaggart Ryan McCaher Dugan year For three years he has played baseball, football and basketball on the Lafayette teams. He is a graduate of the Easton High School and attended Muhlenberg for one year.

(Proc. W. St. Fin.

McCahey J. McTaggari J. waton

Bicycle Races Called Off.

McKay Bellevis Lagerhiade grakes Hidge Mitchell, Hidgewood Reid, Typer Montcair Reid, Typer Montcair Rener, Hamilton Hunter M. Levis R. Marston Baltuscol Hutchisson, Pittsburgh J. Topping Greenwich Tagerian Suburtan donald Soft, New York Tomaid Soft, New York Tomaid Soft, New York Tomair French Link Springs Greens, French Link Springs Greens, Mahwak Hampton, Lenex of M. Thompson, Glen Ridge ert M. Thompson, Glen Ridge ert M. Thompson, Glen Ridge

GOLF TOURNAMENT

In the first testing round for the open golf championship the following qualified:

Open Championship.

Thomson, Phila. Country, is Outmet, Woodland Hackney, Atlantic City

It was with the putter, above all other clubs, that Francis Ouimet gained his first great fame at Brookline. And it was with the putter yesterday that the Boston star pulled himself out of trouble at the start. It would be hard to say who is the best putter. Ouimet trouble at the start. It would be hard to say who is the best putter, Ouimet. Travers or Travis. Their styles are all different, except that in main essentials, such as looking at the ball and adopting a pendulum swing, they night at the Sheepshead Bay Velodrome were called off on account of the rain. Bobby Walthour, Georges Seres and Vincinzo Madonna will meet on Saturday night in a three-cornered motor paced race, to be run in ten-mile heats, first money going to the winner of the first two heats.

Ouimet has a fine touch on the greens, and it is a great sight to watch greens, and

In the same way there is no other golfer who carries greater snap of the wrist than Evans off the tee. The impact—and most of it seems to be wrist—is tremendous, and the distance gained is well beyond the average of even long drivers.

Few think of Chick as a long hitter, whereas there are few in the country. It is not impossible that Max Marswhereas there are few in the country who can come up with him, and only who can come up with him, and only one or two who can move on beyond. Chick comes as close to being master of wood and iron, when he is at his best, as any living man. He is as pretty a golfer to watch as we have even seen, not even barring Vardon, from the tee up to the green.

It was with the putter, above all other clubs, that Francis Ouimet gained his first great fame at Brookline. And it was with the putter yesterday that the Boston star pulled himself out of trouble at the start. It would be hard to say who is the best putter, Ouimet.

Crowell Signs for Three Years with Athletics Providence, June 15.—Crowell, first string pitcher of the Brown University baseball team, signed a three-year con-tract with the Philadelphia American Lafayette Nine Picks Captain.

Ad Wolgast Cancels Bout.

Colonial League Results. All games postponed; rain.